National Quartet Convention Tour : 2010

NQC

with Larry & Gloria Lundstrom

Freedom Hall
Louisville, Kentucky

September 13-20, 2010

Tour Details:

September 13, 2010

Today we begin our journey to the National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY. We will be leaving from Sisseton, SD en route to Newton, IA. Our first day of traveling will be spent getting acquainted with one another, as we make our way to the AmericInn, 641-791-1160, for the night.

September 14, 2010

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, we will nestle in for a good trip. We will enjoy the scenery as we pass by on our way to Arcola, IL. We will tour the Amish Museum and have the opportunity to browse the Rockome Gardens (which includes a Cheese Factory, Grist Mill, a working bee hive, the Bakery and Candy Store.) After our time there we will be invited into an Amish home where we will enjoy a home-cooked Amish Meal. With our minds and tummies full, we will arrive at the Hampton Inn, 812-242-2222, in Terre Haute, IN for a good nights' rest.

September 15, 2010

Today we will arrive at our final destination. We will head out after a delicious breakfast at the hotel. As we make our way to St. Louis, we will stop off at the Joe Huber Family Farm for a country platter dinner that will surely remind you of your grandmother's finest. After the meal, there will be time to tour the farm, Market and Gift Shop.

We will board the bus and arrive in Louisville, KY, less than an hour later. We will be staying in downtown Louisville at the Fairfield Inn & Suites, 502-569-3553. After a brief time to settle ourselves in, we'll be on our way to the National Quartet Convention.

September 16, 2010

After breakfast at the hotel, we will make our way to Churchill Downs, the well-known home of the Kentucky Derby. We will be some of the first to view the newly remodeled Kentucky Derby Museum. Next, we will take a guided walking tour of historic Churchill Downs, meeting some racehorses, getting an insiders view of the area, and learning of the rich history of this location. After getting our morning exercise, we make our way to the National Quartet Convention where you will have the opportunity to take in a Series of Showcases including, Bill Gaither Homecoming Sing-a-long, Dennis Swanberg Comedy, Bluegrass Pickin' Jamboree, and Fire in the Choir. Music and melodies will last late into the night.

September 17, 2010

This morning will be allocated for some rest and relaxation. Breakfast will be provided at the hotel for your enjoyment. The next Series of Showcases begins at 10:30 AM which will feature Dr. David Jeremiah, Hymns of the Ages, Song of a Lifetime, and several different artist showcases. As the evening before, you will delight in the inspirational sounds of the National Quartet Convention and all it has to offer.

September 18, 2010

This is our final day at the National Quartet Convention. After breakfast at the hotel, the Series of Showcases for today highlight Dr. Charles Stanley, the Perry Sisters, the Blackwood Quartet, Shiloh, Mercy's Well and numerous other artists. After a full afternoon, you will be ready and geared up for this final night of celebration at the National Quartet Convention that will surely encourage, uplift and challenge you leaving you with memories that will last a lifetime.

September 19, 2010

Today we will leave Louisville, KY, and begin our journey homeward. We will stop in St Louis, MO, for a special lunch at the Old Spaghetti Factory and be charmed by fine antiques, collected from around the world. Next, we will make our way to the Arch where we will take part in a Special Sightseeing Cruise that will give us an exclusive view of the grand monument. To end the night, the bus will bring us to the Fairfield Inn, 816-452-6212, in Kansas City, MO.

September 20, 2010

This will be our last morning together. We will have breakfast at the hotel and will board the coach to begin our trek home. We will sit back, relax and reflect on all of the delightful memories and moments of spiritual inspiration, trusting the memories and the new-found friendships of this special tour will linger forever!
