

Counted by Christ

by Dr. Steve McVey

He entered into the room, which was filled with noise and activity. There was music, laughter and talking. His eyes scanned the room, searching for the one whose very face caused his breath to quicken and his heart rate to increase. He loved her, yet it was more than that. He wanted her. He wanted her to be his, not just tonight, but forever.

Then he saw her. Across the crowded room, she stood – as if she had been waiting for him all her life. She was beautiful. No, not beautiful. She was stunning. “I must have her!” every fiber of his being resonated. “I want to spend my life with her. I want to love her and cherish her and hold her. I want to take care of her and spoil her!”

He walked across the room, never taking his eyes off her even for a moment. The room was filled with people, but his eyes were on her. As he approached her, his presence caught her attention, and she looked upward into his penetrating eyes. This was the moment he had been waiting for, the time he had longed for as long as he could remember. Gently and lovingly he spoke: “Would you care to dance?”

A True Story

The description I have given is a true story. The two did begin to dance that day and they have never stopped. He asked her to marry him and she said “yes.” You may know the people involved in this story.

The one He desired to have is you. The Person who wanted you so badly is Jesus Christ. If you are a Christian, one day He walked into the room of the world to find you. He was captivated by you and determined that He would make you His own.

All Christians understand intellectually that God loves them, but many don't feel like they are valued by Him as a precious treasure. Because they fail to understand the passionate feelings that God has for them, they are not able to enjoy the kind of intimacy with God that He desires. The story of Ruth and Boaz is perhaps the most romantic story in all the Bible. Their story is a beautiful picture of the intimacy which Christ wants to share with His Bride. This series will rekindle the fires of romance in your relationship to Him by reminding you of how much Jesus loves you.

Some of the topics include:

Intimacy In The Barn
Seduced By His Love
The Royal Family

Jesus Christ loves you and wants you to enjoy His love for eternity. He wants to court you, to entice you to receive His love and His life every day. He wrote a love note to you in the Bible. He said:

How beautiful you are my darling. How beautiful you are! There is no blemish in you! Arise, my darling, my beautiful one and come along. You have made my heart beat faster with a single glance of your eyes. How delightful you are with all your charms! (Song of Solomon 1:15; 2:13; 4:1,7,9; 7:6.)

Why would you be courted by Christ? It is because He wants you to be His bride for all eternity. Jesus Christ is consumed with you. Speaking of you, He said, "Who is this . . . fair as the moon, bright as the sun, majestic as the stars? (Song of Solomon 6:10)

You may not feel that way about yourself, but it makes no difference. What He says is an objective fact.

Will you trust Christ and believe what He says? The link between the truth of His love for you and your receiving that love is simply faith. Talk to Him now in your own words and tell Him that you receive His love. Tell Him that you want to be His for all eternity. Then get ready to enjoy the greatest romance of the ages.

Tell somebody about this wonderful Love of your life. In fact, we would love to hear from you at Grace Walk Ministries to know how your relationship with Christ is going. May God bless you in your walk with Jesus Christ. With Him, life is a dance. Enjoy it!
