FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 9,2010

LCCS Students Perform with The Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra

Students from the Lake Country Christian High School Drumline performed with The Fort Worth Symphony, as part of the Carnegie LinkUP! Program. In four performances at McKinney Memorial Bible Church on Thursday and Friday afternoons, March 4th and 5th, 2010. The LinkUP! Program was presented to over 7,000 Fort Worth ISD 4th Graders, from 77 Elementary Schools.

Weill Music Institute at Carnegie Hall Communities LinkUP! Program provides fourth grade students of the Fort Worth Independent School District and their teachers the opportunity to infuse symphonic music into their curriculum. The LinkUP! program takes students on a journey inside the construction of a musical work. Students learn the ways in which composers use theme and variation to create their compositions. Through participation in selected works, students experience different ways of listening to music. The students answered questions, sang, and played recorders to demonstrate the concepts they have learned.

It was exciting to see LCCS students be a part of such a wonderful program! The four Lake Country Christian students: Thomas Yee (12th), Emily Hargrove (10th), Jarad McCluskey(10th), and Michael Vargha (9th) did an excellent job as the showcase of the performance.
