LCCS Student Named National Merit Finalist

Lake Country Christian School senior Thomas Yee has been named a National Merit Scholarship Finalist in the 2010 National Merit Scholarship Program, a distinction that places him in a group of approximately 15,000 students representing less than one percent of U.S. high school graduating seniors.

As a Finalist, Thomas is eligible to become a Merit Scholar. The National Merit Scholarship Corporation awards about 8,200 Finalists with awards, and they will be notified in the spring. The NMSC selectors evaluate the Finalist's academic record, information about the school's curricula and grading system, two sets of test scores, school official's written recommendation, information about the student's activities and leadership, and the Finalist's own essay.

Lake Country Christian School students who have been named either National Merit finalists or commended students include Jamie Drillette, 2008 Finalist and Merit Scholar; Phillip Watson 2010 Commended Scholar; and Michael Roark, 2006 Commended Scholar.
