Introduction

The charge of the children's ministry council is to develop, support and oversee ministry to and with children from birth to 5th grade.

Primary Tasks and Responsibilities of the Committee

The primary tasks and responsibilities of the children's ministry council include but are not limited to:

- the development of a mission statement for children's ministry
- identification of leadership needs within children's ministry
- training and development of teachers and volunteers for children's ministry
- working with the director of children's ministry to choose curricula for Sunday School and Vacation Bible School
- assessment of the effectiveness of all children's ministry events

Organization and relationships

Children's ministry council membership will include the director of children's ministry and a representative from the staff-parish relations committee. One member will serve as a representative to the church council. Membership will include a Sunday school teacher, a preschool parent, an elementary parent, and a Vacation Bible School volunteer. Members will be recommended by the committee on lay leadership to the annual charge conference. Additional members may be added by the director of children's ministry as needed. Members will serve a maximum of two years.

The children's ministry council works cooperatively with other programming and administrative councils and committees and is responsible to the church council.
