2011 – Dan Wicker, Jan Turner

2012 – Ruth Stull, chair, Mike Jarvis, Barbara Paxton

Ex-officio, Reverend Mary Beth Hardesty-Crouch

Introduction

The charge of the stewardship committee is to plan and implement an ongoing and continuing program with the purpose of increasing the spiritual awareness and education of financial stewardship for the entire congregation.

Primary Tasks and Responsibilities of the Committee

The primary tasks and responsibilities of the stewardship committee include but are not limited to:

- choosing and implementing stewardship education opportunities throughout the year
- planning, development and execution of the annual stewardship campaign to support the annual budget

Organization and relationships

Stewardship committee members will be persons with a passion for stewardship education and development and will be recommended by the committee on lay leadership to the annual charge conference. Members will serve a maximum of three years. The chair will serve on the finance committee and one member will serve as a representative to the church council.

The stewardship committee works cooperatively with other programming and administrative councils and committees and is responsible to the finance committee and church council.
