A Visit with Aunt Harriet Tubman

Imagine an opportunity to visit with Harriet Tubman as an elderly woman looking back on her long, interesting life as she tells of her experiences on the Underground Railroad.

While visiting with Aunt Harriet, you can ask her questions about her life, and sing with her, making your visit warm and personal.

The 92-year-old Harriet Tubman, Aunt Harriet, as her fiends call her, talks about her childhood as a slave, how she felt she had the right to her freedom. She reminds us that her “Train Never Jumped the Tracks”.

All of her stories provide examples of how Faith, Unity, Brotherly Love and Commitment to helping others are important in her day and today.

Go Down Moses

*Oh go down Moses
Way down in Egypt's land
Tell old Pharaoh,
Let my people go!*

*When Israel was in Egypt's land
Let my people go
Oppressed so hard they could not stand,
Let my people go!*

*Oh go down, Moses
Way down in Egypt's land
Tell old Pharaoh
Let my people go!*

*You may hinder me here, but you can't up there
Let my people go!
He sits in the Heaven and answers prayers
Let my people go!*

*Oh go down, Moses
Way down in Egypt's land
Tell old Pharaoh*
