

A Visit with Harriet Tubman

STORIES AND SONGS YOU WILL NEVER FORGET

“The sun came up like gold behind the trees, now that I was FREE, it felt like I was in heaven.”

Harriet Tubman

“As Close As You Will Ever Be To Meeting Harriet Tubman”

Brown Tones Productions

Karol Brown and James Brown

As Harriet Tubman and Brother Ely

“A Visit with Harriet Tubman”

A Woman of Action

Karol is the revered, spunky, 92-year old Harriet Tubman, fondly known as Aunt Harriet

James captivates the audience with his smooth tenor voice singing Negro Spirituals

Together they bring stories and songs that warm your heart, tickle your funny bone, stimulate your imagination, motivate your spirit while educate your mind

“Visit Harriet Tubman” - A Woman of Action

Harriet Tubman, was the most renowned conductor on the Underground Railroad, she was a leader, Civil War Veteran, Nurse, Business Woman, and Civil Rights Activist. Her stories are empowering and inspiring to all.

Testimonials

“Thank you for the wonderful performance you provided us here at Mill Creek Library. I told my library manager, I have never heard such a long period of applause for any program held at this library in the past; it was truly an indication of how much of an impact you both had on the audience.”

Mickey Gallagher, Children’s Librarian, Mill Creek Library, Mill Creek, WA

“I have never seen anyone else get a standing ovation from 6th Graders.” Pamela Wallace, Gray Middle School Teacher, Tacoma, WA

“A Visit with Aunt Harriet” was terrific for our series of Black History Month events. The performance was educational as well as entertaining, a show for all ages to see.” Ron Wright, Clover Park Technical College, Lakewood, WA

Ph 253-581-1954 | Fx 253-588-2067
10518 91 Ave. Ct. SW, Lakewood, WA 98498

<http://www.visitharriettubman.com>

Email: BrownToneStorytellers@gmail.com

Selected for the Humanities Washington’s Inquiring Mind Speakers Bureau, from 2000 to 2010 Sample Venues: Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, Tacoma, WA, Seattle Art Museum, Old Liberty Theater, Ridgefield, WA, Wenatchee Performing Arts, Schools, Colleges, Churches, and Libraries across the country.