RISING STAR EDWINA FINDLEY TAKES FLIGHT Lands Roles in HBO Pilot Treme and George Lucas' Red Tails

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, March 2010 – Edwina Findley may be best known for her role as Omar’s gun-toting sidekick Tosha Mitchell on HBO’s hit drama The Wire.

But things are about to change for the NYU Grad as she rejoins the show’s creative team for HBO’s new pilot Treme. She plays the role of Davina Lambreaux, the daughter of fellow Wire alumn Clarke Peters and the sister of Rob Brown (The Express) Wendell Pierce. The show is currently shooting on location in New Orleans.

Findley, who has been hailed by theatre critics as “Impressive”, “Stellar”, “Vibrant”, and “A Marvel to Watch”, has also completed shooting Red Tails; a film produced by George Lucas.

The movie, adapted for screen by John Ridley, tells the story of the Tuskegee Airmen during World War II. Findley signed on as the character CeCe and will appear alongside a stellar ensemble – including Nate Parker, Andre Royo, and R&B sensation Ne-Yo. Terrence Howard is rumored to round out the cast as well. Red Tails is directed by Wire Alumn, Anthony Hemingway.

The multitalented twenty-something is represented theatrically by APA, commercially by Don Buchwald & Associates, and managed by Meg Mortimer, Principal Entertainment.
