Knowing the Master

The Problem: We have never had a king, a master, or a lord.

The Greek word for lord, kurios, means – he to whom a person or thing belongs, about which he has power and authority over; master or owner

I. Intro (Matthew 16 21-25)

What is a Christian?

Saved by Faith?

Who wants to enter the kingdom?

II. Deny self

What is mankind obsessed with?

God created us to live within boundaries

(Genesis 2:8-9, 15-17)

Breaking boundaries does not make you free.

(Genesis 3:1-6)

Why does Peter receive such a stern rebuke?

(Matt 16:23)

The solution to the issue of boundaries

(1 Timothy 6:6, Phil 4:11, 2 Cor 12:10)

III. Pick up your cross

The cross means death

Absolute freedom is a myth,

we are always freed from something to something else.

IV. Follow me

Following takes focus - There are a million distractions and it only take one to work.

And Yes it take work!
